

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 336
By Hargrove

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Jennifer Eberle for outstanding work as an intern.

WHEREAS, throughout the course of each legislative session, there have emerged certain legislative interns who far exceed the basic requirements set forth for them to follow; and

WHEREAS, Jennifer Eberle has distinguished herself as one such individual through her work as a legislative intern for Representative Jere L. Hargrove, Majority Leader; her efforts resulted in untold benefits for the member she served and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a highly regarded student at Austin Peay State University, Jennifer Eberle has excelled both academically and in extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, this exemplary young lady is also a 1994 honors graduate of Northwest High School, where she served astutely and with dedication as a cheerleader, Key Club member, active participant in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes as historian, and as a valued member of the Associated Student Government; and

WHEREAS, on her first day on the job as a legislative intern, Jennifer was beset by an automobile accident, but did not let that misfortune interfere long with her duties and responsibilities to the citizens of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, three months later, Jennifer was again beset by an automobile accident, but did not let that misfortune interfere long with her duties and responsibilities to the citizens of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Jennifer helped keep the members of the majority caucus abreast of breaking news and critical policy developments through the daily production of the Tennessee news clippings; and

WHEREAS, Jennifer has served ably in the crucial, but often thankless, job of unofficial Social Director of the 100th General Assembly, never letting politics or personalities get in the way of a good party; and

WHEREAS, Jennifer has demonstrated an uncanny ability to obtain complimentary admission and transportation to the myriad social gatherings associated with the 1997 legislative session; and

WHEREAS, Jennifer has clearly enjoyed her legislative internship, but at the same time, has continually focused on the necessity of securing future employment by schmoozing with members of the Third House, dropping names, jetsetting across the state, and relentlessly prevailing upon the Majority Leader to speak well on her behalf; and

WHEREAS, while Jennifer is known as a loyal democrat, she is also renowned for her magnanimity, and has, on occasion, extended her hand in friendship to certain members of the minority party; and

WHEREAS, above all, Jennifer has brought to the Office of Majority Leader extraordinary organizational skills, a sense of style and artistry, and an unwavering commitment to the forces of truth, justice and the American way; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE-HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That we hereby commend Jennifer Eberle for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Majority Leader, Representative Jere L. Hargrove and wish her much success in what we are confident will be a brilliant future.
